THURSDAY JANUARY 24, 1901
THE QUEEN IS DEAD

Queen Victoria died at Osborne on the Isle of Wight at 6:30 o'clock on the 22nd inst in the evening and with her departed that personal respect which has so largely contributed to keep England conservative for the last forty years.

The high regard for her person and life inspired in Englishmen of all classes kept the populace in bounds under all circumstances. The controlling force in England which inspired respect for royalty has passed, but not to Albert Edward, who will reign as Edward VII. The people of England are acquainted with the man and know his character so well that they believe themselves capable of outliving his reign which at his time in life will not be many years.

Edward has a certain popularity connected with his person which comes from a source that will be of very little aid to his reign when the passions of the people are enlisted in a struggle for more independence than they now possess. Republicanism which has been suppressed by the personal of his mother will make an appearance in his reign with more energy than it has had at any time since the first twenty years of her reign.

When it makes an appearance again it will come to remain till England has learned to govern without the aid of him. There will not be any such harshness as was developed when Cromwell became ruler in England as the civilization of his age will not permit of any such barbarous proceedings as followed the revolution caused by Puritan singers and transmitters by Cromwell.

There will not be any need for a long Parliament in the island or any of the grotesque proceedings that followed the death of Charles Stuart but there will be a gradual decrease of kingly authority till it will be disposed of in a lawful manner. There is not any cause that can be assigned to prevent a manifestation of Republican feeling by the people, but I fear civil acts which made the revolution under Cromwell characteristic of the time it occurred, will not be among the scenes in the next revolution. The power of the united kingdom will not become less, but the glory of the monarchy will diminish in the future as the people go home to become more self governing and independent of the kingship and of the aristocracy.

When the body of the people of the united kingdom have ceased to be peasants and have become men endowed with inalienable rights the distinction between aristocrat and plebeian will continue to become less, till it has disappeared among men to take its place in history for the information of those who may wonder when they learn that there was a time when there were political destructions.

THE LOTTERY'S WATERLOO.

The lottery received its Waterloo in the Assembly on Tuesday, and in the Senate yesterday. When the news was received that the scheme was defeated the people breathed free and congratulations upon the streets in Reno were plentiful. Smiling faces were everywhere present when it became generally known that the test resolution to sustain the constitutional amendment had been beaten by twenty seven to three in the Assembly.

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

AN EXCELLENT COMBINATION.
The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal, laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system of fevers, dispelling colds, headaches, a fever, gently yet promptly and curing one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

Correction of a Wrong Impression.

O. D. F. Geo. Mall clerk on the O & C, and Frank Began, conductor on the same road, are spending today in Reno.

Some days ago the JOURNAL had a little brush with the Carson News. The latter paper presented clinching pro-lottery argument to the effect that there are no mines in the vicinity of Reno.

The JOURNAL's reply was misconstrued by the San Francisco Chronicle's mining editor, and that usually exact and careful paper started an item going the rounds, which misrepresented the condition of things.

For the benefit of the dear public, let it be said that Washoe county is enjoying unparalleled mining activity for this region. For the first time in its history the mining output has exceeded that of any other productive industry in the county.

LOTTERY CRUSADE

Officers May Be Impeached Unless They Stop Sale of Tickets.

The lie is to be given the erstwhile lottery hirelings who used the ridiculous argument that Reno fought the amendment bill because of free use of a sack sent here by the Little Louisiana Company.

Not only are the people of this city unalterably opposed to the establishment of a State lottery, but will stamp out the sale of tickets in this city.

The word has passed around among the dealers and they are almost unanimous in expression of satisfaction that the traffic is to cease. A barber and a cigar dealer each said to a JOURNAL reporter last evening: "I only sold tickets because my competitors did. If they stop I will be glad to do so."

When the Grand Jury assembled in the court house yesterday Judge Curler instructed them to ascertain if the officers were enforcing the law prohibiting sale of lottery tickets and, if found that they were not doing their duty, to present them for impeachment.

George H. Taylor was chosen foreman of the Jury and Sam Wheeler secretary.

KILL THIS MEASURE

A Bill That Would Injure the Public Schools of This State.

It is understood that a bill will shortly be introduced in the Nevada legislature providing for the reduction of interest on contract lands from 6 to 4 percent.

This measure is one of vital importance to the people of this State.
It would decrease the principal revenue of our public schools 33 1/3 per cent.

As the writer understands the question, these lands have been ceded to the state by the general government and are sold for $1.25 an acre.

Stockmen buy large acreages, paying 25 cents down and interest at 6 per cent on the balance. The lands are exempt from taxation until final payment is made, which is usually long deferred. This interest goes into the school fund.

The legislators have remembered their anti-lottery pledges and have only to be reminded that in nearly every county all political conventions adopted a plank with reference to contract lands. The people of Nevada may trust to their senators and assemblymen to kill this measure.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

The Senate Also Overwhelmingly Anti-Lottery--Introduction of the Amendment.

THE third day's sitting of the Legislature developed that the lottery amendment has no stronger following in the Senate than in the House. Of course, the "antis" are not ready to take oath that every man who supported the Wilson or Williams resolution will vote against the amendment, but they are confident of good majorities and gloom broods over the camp of the enemy. However, no sense of security will cause the "antis" to relax their vigilance.

The Carson delegation, it is whispered, wish to punish Reno under the "Lex Talionis." It is the belief of a few narrow minded people in that burg, who by no means are representatives of the whole-souled, generous Carsonites, that the lottery was beaten by Reno in order to slap Carson. This silly idea has prompted the drafting of a bill to enlarge the boundaries of Ormsby at Washoe's expense. The vote on such a bill is likely to be an exact repetition of the one cast on the Wilson resolution, with the pro and con reversed. Good people of Carson, why arise ye in your might and wrath?

SENATE.
After roll call, prayer and reading of the journal, Senator Williams of Charobill introduced the following anti-lottery resolution:

Resolved, That the 20th session of the Nevada Senate are unalterably opposed to changing, modifying or amending the Constitution of the State of Nevada or appending thereto any article whereby it would become possible for a lottery to be established within the borders of the State.

Senator Livingston entered objection to taking action on the resolution and moved that it be tabled until next Tuesday.

Senator Williams gave reasons why it should be voted upon without delay.
Senators Flannigan, Jackson, Bell and Pitt spoke for the resolution.

Senator Wason reported having received a petition from his constituents requesting him to vote against the lottery amendment. He stated that he would do so.

Senator Martin stated his position on the lottery question. He was in favor of leaving it to a vote of the people.

On rollcall the resolution passed by a vote of 12 to 8.

Senator Jackson offered a Senate Concurrent Resolution to create a school of mines. Referred to committee on mines and mining.

Assembly Bill No. 1 received. An act to create a legislative fund. Referred to the committee of the whole.

IT IS NEEDLESS TO SAY That everybody uses groceries. However, many of them do not know that most of their food is adulterated by scheming manufacturers. Such concern do not get our trade. Our prices are as low as GOOD GROCERIES are sold for

Many Things Are Meant
By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they advertise GOOD GROCERIES no mention is made of PRICE. When price is mentioned QUALITY IS OVERLOOKED. Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.
We Preach the Three Main Virtues of Groceries—Quality Quantity Price
They are mentioned in their regular order and the happy combination is causing hosts of pleased patrons at our store.
